Let's go to Portugal

This unique and well preserved country has all the makings for a delightful new travel experience for you. Are you up for a fresh adventure to a country that is colorful, carefree and culturally rich? Come along with me to explore the land of Portugal!

Martha Norman, Owner Take Me to Europe

TOUR HOTELS:

Lisbon, Sep 17 - 21

*Hotel Tivoli Avenida Liberdade 5

Deluxe Rooms, Breakfast Buffet Included

Located in the very heart of Lisbon and housed in a 1930s building on Avenida da Liberdade, this 5-star modern luxury hotel will be a comfortable place to call home during our four nights in Lisbon. You will love the rooftop terrace!

Vidago, Sep 21 - 23

*Vidago Palace 5

Superior Rooms, Breakfast Buffet Included

Golf and Spa on Site!

Our retreat spot on this tour will be in a refreshing location that was designed during the reign of King Carlos I in 1910. This hotel is set in a magnificent park that deserves a long visit itself. Soak up the tranquility, breathe nature and enjoy the luxurious living for a couple of nights!

Porto, Sep 23 - 26

*Pestana Vintage Hotel 5

Deluxe River View Balcony Rooms, Breakfast Buffet Included

In one of the most prestigious areas of Porto, the Ribeira historic district you will find the Pestana Vintage Porto, constructed as a group of 18 buildings that have been named a UNESCO World Heritage Site.

Postcards always feature the hotel right in front of the Douro River, which blends in nicely with the other historic buildings in the area. You will be welcomed in an atmosphere that is vintage and contemporary, luxurious and romantic.

DAILY ITINERARY

Sunday, Sep 16
Depart from USA

Lisbon, Portugal

Monday, Sep 17
Arrival into Lisbon
Welcome Dinner

Once you arrive into Lisbon, make your own way to the Hotel Tivoli Avenida Liberdade. Your afternoon is at leisure. We will meet tonight at the Restaurant Terraco on the Hotel's top floor for our included Welcome Dinner. This rooftop bistro offers breathtaking 180 degree views of Lisbon that will instantly have you ready to tour this charming capital city of Portugal.

Tuesday, Sep 18
Lisbon City Tour- Half Day

Today you will see the most emblematic sites of Lisbon discovering the architecture, history and traditions of the Portuguese capital. Belem Tower, Monument of Discoveries, Jeronimos Monastery and the Coach Museum are some of the most symbolic monuments. Within the Alfama and Rossio quarters, you will find the essence of the city. We will also have the opportunity to taste the worldwide famous and delicious custard: Pasteis de Belem. Afternoon and evening at leisure.

Wednesday, Sep 19
Sintra Day Trip
Group Dinner

This morning we will depart for Sintra which is a Portuguese UNESCO World Heritage site, due to its beautiful, enchanted, and romantic landscape. Located in the foothills of the Sintra Mountains, this royal sanctuary is adorned with exotic trees and pastel colored villas and palaces. We will visit the Pena Palace, which is one of the Seven Wonders of Portugal.

We will also stop to admire the breathtaking views from Cabo da Roca- the westernmost point in Europe. Our lunch time will be in a fishing village- Cascais. Once we return to Lisbon, you will have some time at leisure to shop or rest, then we will meet in the lobby this evening to be transferred by Tuk Tuks to the Restaurant Tagide for dinner. I just love this place! Their food is fresh and so delicious. Plus, they have a great view of the city.

Thursday, Sep 20
Evora Day Trip
Group Lunch

Evora guards its historical center with a vast outer wall and represents a valuable cultural legacy that UNESCO has classified as World Heritage. The city, with its narrow streets of Moorish origin, holds 2000 years of history. Wander the streets and absorb the secret soul that a diverse range of cultural influences has laid down in the city. We will have an included lunch at the Restaurant Dom Joaquim which is known for its traditional Alentejo food. Afterwards, we'll leave the town center and make a stop for tastings in Cartuxa. The visitor center is in the old refectory of the former retreat of the Jesuit Brothers who taught at the University in the 16th & 17th centuries. Return to Lisbon for evening at leisure.

Friday, Sep 21
Coimbra
On Our Way to Vidago

After breakfast, we will check out of our hotel in Lisbon and will be on our way to Vidago. But first we make a stop in Coimbra, a riverfront city in the center of Portugal. It is home to a preserved medieval town and the historic University of Coimbra. Built on the grounds of a former palace, the university is famed for its baroque library which we will visit on the tour. In the city's old town lies the 12th century Romanesque cathedral Se Velha. We will have lunch at leisure in Coimbra and then have a 2 1/2 hour drive to Vidago.

Saturday, Sep 22
Day at Leisure
Group Dinner

This is your free day! Maybe you want to enjoy treatments at the luxury spa, explore the surroundings or even play a round of golf? This quiet and serene resort will be a highlight of the tour!

The water from the thermal springs is known for one of the richest alkaline waters. For long decades, the waters of Vidago have been part of the daily life and traditions of the people of the town. Their excellent therapeutic properties made Vidago famous and at the beginning of the 20th century turned it into Portugal's leading resort, a favorite destination of the Portuguese, European aristocracy (and Take Me to Europe tour participants).

We will meet tonight for an included group dinner at the hotel. Enjoy your day in the lovely palace hotel. I think you might feel a bit like royalty.

The Vidago Palace Hotel Golf Course is the ideal place for anyone wanting to combine golf with relaxation and tranquility.

Sunday, Sep 23
Douro River Cruise
Peso da Regua to Porto

This morning after checkout from the hotel, our coach will take us to board our ship for a private Douro river cruise to Porto including lunch. Cruises are one of the best ways to revel in the Douro region. You will enjoy the beautiful landscapes adorned with terraced vineyards on the river banks, farms and beautiful scenery as the river meanders throughout the middle of the increasingly steep slopes.

We will finish the river cruise once we arrive into Porto which will be a short transfer to our hotel. You will have the remaining evening at leisure. The hotel is in the best location of Porto so you will have lots of options for restaurants just a few steps from the hotel.

I reserved all river front rooms so you will be able to continue to enjoy this river from your hotel room!

Monday, Sep 24

Porto City Tour- Half Day

Porto is a coastal city located in the northwest of Portugal known for its stately bridges and port wine production. In the medieval Ribeira (riverside district where we are staying on the tour), the narrow cobbled streets wind past merchants' houses and cafes. You will be guided through the city center, a place filled with history and culture. Porto Se, Sao Bento Train Station- considered one of the most beautiful train stations in the world and Lello Library, ranked as the third most beautiful library in the world will also be visited. Lunch, afternoon and evening at leisure.

Tuesday, Sep 25

Braga Day Trip

Farewell Dinner

This morning we'll visit Braga, one of the oldest in the country. The city has a cultural and archeological richness, due to the Roman occupancy in the area. We will visit the Bom Jesus Sanctuary, a city icon, with its monumental staircase; amid an expanse of greenery, it offers an excellent panoramic view of the city. Outside the historical center, Sao Martinho de Tibães Monastery and S. Frutuoso de Montelios Chapel also warrant a visit for their beauty and historical significance. We will then return to Porto so you can have the afternoon at leisure to shop for souvenirs before you leave for home.

We will meet in the hotel reception this evening for a short drive to Vila Nova de Gaia and our farewell dinner at Restaurant Vinum.

Wednesday, Sep 26
